Visa requirement-Invitation letters

It is the sole responsibility of the participant or the group leader to take care of visa requirements. Participants or group leaders who require an entry visa must allow sufficient time for the visa application procedure. Participants or group leaders should contact the nearest Embassy or Consulate (of the country where the meeting will be held) to determine the appropriate timing of the visa applications.

Participant or group member registration details might be shared with the immigration authorities to assist in the immigration process. However, the "Congress Organizers" will not directly contact embassies and consulates on behalf of visa applicants.

To receive an invitation letter for an event, participants must first register for the meeting and pay the registration fee in full. They can then contact the "Congress Organizers" to ask for the invitation letter.

The invitation letter for an event does not financially obligate the "Congress Organizers" in any way. All expenses incurred in relation to the conference and the visas are the sole responsibility of the participant.

Insurance and liability

The "Congress Organizers" cannot be held responsible for any direct or indirect loss, injury or damage to any property, whatever the cause may be. Normal caution should be exercised by all participants.

The "Congress Organizers" recommend to effect adequate personal, health and travel insurances.

Cancellation of the meeting

In the event that the meeting cannot be held or is postponed due to events beyond the reasonable control of the "Congress Organizers" or due to events which are not attributable to unlawful intent or gross negligence of the "Congress Organizers", the "Congress Organizers" cannot be held liable by participants for any damages, costs, or losses incurred, such as transportation costs, accommodation costs, costs for additional orders, financial losses, etc.

Under these circumstances, the "Congress Organizers" reserve all rights to either retain the entire registration fee and to use it for a future meeting, or to reimburse the participant the registration fee there from deducting costs already incurred for the organisation of the meeting and which could not be recovered from third parties.

Force majeure

Neither party shall be liable or shall be in default of its obligations if such default is the result of war or national emergency, acts of terrorism and its consequences, strike, lock-out, fire, explosion, flood riots, civil disturbance, industrial disputes, natural and nuclear disaster, epidemics, health's risks and pandemics or other cause beyond the reasonable control of the party affected.

The "Congress Organizers" reserve the right to defer or to cancel the course (Without liability to the participant) in the event of a Force majeure)

Fulfillment and jurisdiction

This contract is subject to Belgian law without recourse to its conflicts of law principles. Any legal dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in relation to these "Terms" and/or the respective meeting, shall be settled by the competent court of law in Liege, Belgium.
